LAKE

6th Edition

August 2020

I SURRENDER! 2020...you win! I think we're all feeling this way about now. And this is where I could list all of the things that have gone wrong with this year, personally, professionally, locally and worldwide! But I refuse to give 2020 the satisfaction of bringing me down. Instead, I choose to focus on the positive. I'm so proud of our lake community and of all of the great things I see happening. There have reportedly been a couple of Lake Angels cleaning up common areas around the lake. Weeds were pulled, Landscaping was magically tended to and dingy bathrooms were transformed. Cans and recycling left astray found their proper homes. The Smiley Face bandit is still on the loose, spreading joy in the form of Smiley Garden stakes. And has anyone noticed the bear carvings popping up everywhere?!?! Our lake has some of the most talented and kind-hearted people ever and 2020, you can't take that away from us!

I know I have said this before, but if you haven't met your neighbors yet? I encourage you to knock on their door and introduce yourselves. It never hurts to have an extra set of eyes looking out for you and your property. Like many, Shane and I went out after the storms, checking on the properties of people we knew and that were dealing with devastation at their permanent residence. We sent photos and reassurances to ease minds so they could prioritize where they needed to be. It was amazing, yet not surprising, to see the number of people helping each other, clearing trees and debris and just offering support.

As we finish out this year, I pray that all of this bad luck disappears. If not, I know I have a lake full of great people that will look out for each other and we WILL get through this.

Have a great rest of your summer!

Cabin Fever

Fall is almost here and you know what that means, it's about time to prepare for winter. Your summer home will be empty for months and if it's not prepared for the snow and cold, you may have to deal with expensive damages come next spring. To prevent that, here are some helpful tips:

1. Keep the sump pump pumping. There is nothing more annoying than listening to septic alarms!
2. Turn off your water supply and drain your pipes and all water containers to prevent them from freezing (and possibly bursting). Please read article from Poweshiek Water in this newsletter!
3. Clean your gutters. Clogged gutters can cause water to back up under your shingles, leading to a leaky roof.
4. Inspect your roof. Snow buildup over the winter can cause roofs to leak or even cave in, so replace broken or missing shingles before the winter weather sets in.
5. Check for any openings small animals may be able to squeeze through. Nobody wants a surprise four-legged guest in their home!
6. Unplug major appliances.
7. Turn the heating down (or off). If your cabin has a furnace, consider setting the thermostat to around 45°F to prevent frost build-up, or turn it off entirely to save energy — but only if you've properly prepared your pipes to prevent freezing.
8. Clean out the fridge and cupboards.
9. Pull the batteries out of your boats, ATV's and Golf Carts and store them indoors. If possible, leave on a trickle-charger.

Last but not least, there is nothing better than good neighbors! When you say your summer farewell, tell your full-time neighbors, if you are fortunate to have any, so they can keep an eye on your property — just be sure to let them know if someone will be stopping by to check on the place, so they don't think you are being robbed!

Shane and I check on a few summer-only properties throughout the winter months. We get calls to check on things like thermostats, septic alarms and check for flooded basements after a big rain. We can even let repair people in. If you find yourself in need of assistance this winter, please call out to Gator Enterprise, LLC. 641-522-7313 or stop in to discuss options.

Jackson's Safe Return

On Friday evening, June 19, Jackson, a Three-pound 14 year-old Yorkie got spooked by a firework and went missing. Friends and neighbors spent the entire weekend looking for this little guy with no luck. Jackson's "parents" Mike and Robin Peska were devastated when they had to leave their weekend retreat and go back home. Five days later, Mike Ehrig was leaving Gator Enterprise, LLC and spotted the little guy by the hayfield and scooped him up.

None the worse for wear, Jackson was reunited with his family and the lake rejoiced as word was spread through Facebook that the little guy was found. If only he could tell us of his adventures!

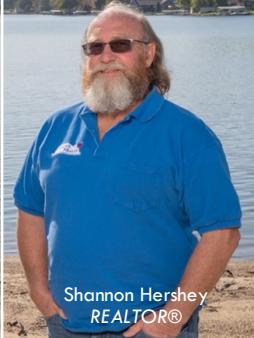

Robin and Mike would like to thank everyone for their kind words of support and how awesome it was that everyone at the lake was helping in the search. They are very grateful for being a part of a such great community at Holiday Lake!

The 1st Ever Dog Parade was held on July 4th this summer at the Park and it was a howling good time!

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Fall Feed

By Barry Knowles, Holiday Lake Fish Committee

The dog days of summer can be tough, but also plentiful. Kids can have a great time catching little pan fish off of docks, meanwhile, early risers have the opportunity to fish the calm mornings from a boat on the deeper water. In the back of anglers' minds, is the fall feed.

The water will start to cool down. Big fish are going to seek warm water/food, and feed heavily during a short window of time, before it's off to the deep. Be sure to take advantage of this opportunity!!

The Fish Committee would like to give a huge THANK YOU to everyone who came out to support us, and/or participated as a stop, for this year's 2020 Poker Run. We had roughly 250 people participate and brought in about $8,900. Every last penny will go towards fall fish stocking which includes our infamous walleye and perch. Again, thank you, times are uncertain and this community continues to band together for a good cause.

FISH ON!!! Fishing Tip:

Timing is key during these hot days. Set an alarm early or burn the midnight oil to prevail.

Winter Water Shut-Off Information

Poweshiek Water Association provides the option of padlocking the service & disconnecting the meter at the pit. There is a service fee of $50 for the technician to do this "snowbird" procedure. If the customer has met their five year contact, they would go to half rate minimum while the service is locked off. The half rate currently is $19.88 due monthly. When the customer wants the service reinstated there would be another service fee of $50 for the technician to return and hook all equipment back up. Customers whom have not met their five year contract would continue to pay a full rate minimum, $39.75 monthly while locked off. The customer would need to drain their personal water system so no water is left in their plumbing. This procedure will ensure no water will freeze in the cabin. PWA reads the meters once monthly therefore if water pipe breaks in a home it could be days or possibly weeks before it is known. Everyone is encouraged to have a plan in place to check their property if they choose not to disconnect their water through the winter months. For further information, please contact:

Excerpts from the Brooklyn Chronicle

HOLIDAY LAKE—ITS BIRTH---ITS GROWTH part 1

Contributed by Lot Owner, Blake Wilkinson

The first step for the project led to getting options to buy 500 acres of land in the wooded, grassy area north of Kent Church. Options for land purchases were obtained from Thomas P. Ryan, O.V. Osborne, C.M. Thomas, H.C. Powell, Martin Schmitz, W.L. Showalter and Leslie Showalter.

When plans and specific actions for a dam were approved and a permit to collect and store water was issued by the Iowa Natural Resources Council, the door was opened for four private developers to proceed with plans for a lake about seven miles north of Brooklyn. The four men were A.N. Wilson, formerly of Belle Plaine, now Holiday Lake, D.A. Wilson, Belle Plane, L. H. Wilson, Trenton, Mo, and Jack A. Clark of Des Moines.

Thus, Holiday Lake, a private recreational area, nestled among the gently rolling wooded hills of Madison Township in Poweshiek County was born. Poweshiek became a county in 1848 just two years after Iowa was admitted as a state. Poweshiek is taken from the great Sac and Fox chieftain- Poweshiek means Roused Bear. Chief Poweshiek's word and was respected among the white settlers. Poweshiek and his tribe hunted and camped among the very hills that now contains holiday Lake. Local legend hold that the area was an Indian camping and burial ground. Several arrowheads and other stone implements were found during grading. After examination, some bones, resembling human bones were identified, but no skulls were found.

An aerial photograph of a large outdoor storage facility with numerous units. Overlaid text reads: "Holiday Rental, Inc.", "Indoor and Expanded Outdoor Self Storage Facility", "1739 Kent Church Rd.", and the phone number "641-891-0593".
